

Flying Monkeys Privacy Policy

We Respect Your Privacy.

We respect and protect the privacy of our website visitors.

By visiting this website you consent to the collection and use of your information as we have outlined in the following privacy policy.

Kinds of Information Collected

There are two kinds of information that can be obtained about our website visitors:

1. Aggregate Information
2. Personally Identifiable Information

Aggregate Information is anonymous data that website administrators use to diagnose problems on website servers, to better administer the sites and to help improve the quality of our website. It may be your domain name or your IP address (a number that is automatically assigned to your computer whenever you are touring the internet).

Personally Identifiable Information is any information that identifies you. It can be your email address, or any other details that you supply voluntarily.

Information We Collect

We may track Aggregate Information such as your IP address, browser type and the domain of your Internet Service Provider. We may share Aggregate Information with third parties, such as the number of visitors to our website. None of this data is Personally Identifiable Information. When you enter our site you are an anonymous visitor and will remain that way unless you choose otherwise.

We do not automatically obtain any Personally Identifiable Information. We collect Personally Identifiable Information (such as your name, address, phone number, and e-mail address) only when you specifically and knowingly provide this information to us via email or through a Web form.

Security of Collected Information

Any Personally Identifiable Information you provide to us is kept in secure files. Access to these files is limited to only authorized individuals within this company who have the need to know. We continuously make all reasonable efforts to protect your information from theft, misuse and alteration.

Disclosure

We do not disclose your personal data to any other organizations unless required to do so in compliance with any valid legal process such as a search warrant, subpoena, statute, or court order.

Access to Your Data

You can get in touch with us by any means listed on our Contact Us page and have us erase or modify any data that we have collected about you.

Use of Cookies

We reserve the right to use cookies as we see fit in order to limit multiple responses and registrations on a customer survey. We also may use cookies to limit the number of times a promotional page will appear.

We never use cookies to retrieve information from your computer that was not originally sent by us to you in a cookie. We do not use information transferred through cookies for any promotional or marketing purposes.

As we do not run advertising on our website from third parties, you will not receive a cookie from any third party advertisers by visiting our website.

Most browsers are initially set to accept cookies. If you'd prefer not to, you can set your browser to refuse cookies or to alert you when cookies are being sent. However, it is possible that some parts of this site, such as the polls & surveys (if we should conduct any), will not function properly if you do so.

Mailing List Policy

We have a strong policy against unsolicited e-mail advertising, also known as "spam". Our customer e-mail list is kept on a secure database, and is never shared with any other group or organization. If you subscribe to our mailing list, you will only receive messages from our company by subscribing to that list.

We give our customers the choice to opt out of our e-mail program. If you choose to unsubscribe from our list, we will see to it that you do not receive any more messages from us. We will respond respectfully and immediately to all requests sent to lyndsay@theflyingmonkeys.ca to remove an e-mail address from our list.

Links & Advertisements

We do not have third party advertisements on our website. We may provide links to external businesses that we think our customers may be interested in, such as the company that runs our website. These other sites are not subject to our privacy policy and we are not responsible for the privacy policies on these external sites, or for the use of any information that these sites may collect.

Safety of Our Content

Our website content is intended for adults above the legal drinking age.
